COMPLAINT:

——————— Complaint made to the House by Mr. Sullivan, Member for the County of Louth of an offensive expression addressed to him by Dr. Kenealy, Member for the Borough of Stoke, in the Lobby, during a Division just taken:—Mr. Speaker observed, that had the expression complained of been used in the House, it would have been his duty to deal with the matter on his own authority; but as the complaint referred to words used in the Lobby, he left it to the consideration of the House; and Mr. Speaker called upon Dr. Kenealy to explain his conduct; Dr. Kenealy was heard in his place; and having admitted that he had used the expression complained of, desired to submit his conduct to the decision of the House; after which he withdrew; Resolution. That the honourable Member for Stoke be ordered to withdraw the offensive expression addressed by him, in the Lobby, to the honourable Member for Louth, and to apologise to the House for having used it; Dr. Kenealy being called in, Mr. Speaker acquainted him with the Resolution of the House; Dr. Kenealy thereupon withdrew the offensive expression complained of, and apologised to the House for having used it, 144.

CONFESSIONAL, The; Motion, That, having regard to the state of the Law which renders the publication of an obscene book an offence, although the person publishing it be not actuated by any desire to deprave, and to the absence of any power in the Education Department to interfere with the religious teaching in public elementary schools, or to make any inquiry thereon, this House is of opinion that the doctrines and practices set forth in a book entitled "The Priest in Absolution," and carried out under the name of the Confessional by certain clergymen of the Church of England, do tend to deprave and are dangerous to the best interests of society and of religion; and Question superseded by adjournment of the House for want of Forty Members, 316.

HOUSE:

——— Attends Her Majesty in the House of Peers,—at the opening of the Session, 3. ——— Attends the Lords Commissioners in the House of Peers,—at the close of the Session, 439. On other occasions, 92, 117, 232, &c.

——— Resolutions of,— ——— That whenever Notice has been given that Estimates will be moved in Committee of Supply, and the Committee stands as the first Order of the Day upon any day except Thursday and Friday, on which Government Orders have precedence, the Speaker shall, when the Order for the Committee has been read, forthwith leave the Chair without putting any Question, and the House shall thereupon resolve itself into such Committee, unless on going into Committee on the Army, Navy, or Civil Service Estimates respectively an Amendment be moved relating to the division of Estimates proposed to be considered on that day, 11.

——— That, except for a Money Bill, no Order of the Day or Notice of Motion be taken after half-past Twelve of the clock at night, with respect to which Order or Notice of Motion a Notice of Opposition or Amendment shall have been printed on the Notice Paper, or if such Notice of Motion shall only have been given the next previous day of sitting, and objection shall be taken when such Notice is called, 41.

——— That no readjustment of local administration will be satisfactory or complete which does not refer county business, other than that relating to the administration of justice and the maintenance of order, to a Representative County Board, 90. Vide Supply (Amendments).

——— That, in the opinion of this House, it is advisable that a Royal Commission be appointed to consider and report as to the best means of carrying into effect the intention of the Legislature with regard to the Stake Nets in the Solway, as expressed in the thirty-third Clause of "The Salmon Fisheries (Scotland) Act, 1862;" and also to report as to the desirability of further legislation, 104.

——— That the sitting of the House, at Two of the clock To-morrow, be held subject to the Resolution of the House of the 30th day of April 1869, 123.

——— That, in the opinion of this House, it is inexpedient and unnecessary for Her Majesty's Government to introduce any legislative measure affecting the Livery Companies of the City of London, 143.

——— That the honourable Member for Stoke be ordered to withdraw the offensive expression addressed by him, in the Lobby, to the honourable Member for Louth, and to apologise to the House for having used it, 144. Vide Complaint.

——— That, in the opinion of this House, no legislation for the compulsory registration of the proprietorship of newspapers can be considered satisfactory which does not provide for the repeal of the exceptional Law which renders newspaper proprietors criminally as well as civilly responsible for the acts of their employés, 145.

——— That this House declines to entertain any Resolutions which may embarrass Her Majesty's Government in the maintenance of peace and in the protection of British interests, without indicating any alternative line of policy, 221.

——— That

——— That whenever the House shall meet at Two of the clock, the sitting of the House shall be held subject to the Resolutions of the House of the 30th day of April 1869; 228.

——— That it is desirable to adopt measures for preventing simoniacal evasion of the Law and checking abuses in the sale of livings in private patronage, 301.

——— That, in the opinion of this House, the Duties now levied upon Cotton Manufactures imported into India, being protective in their nature, are contrary to sound commercial policy, and ought to be repealed without delay, so soon as the financial condition of India will permit, 334.

——— That, having regard to the Recommendations made in 1874 by the Select Committee on Public Departments (Purchases, &c.), this House is of opinion that the recent appointment of Controller of Her Majesty's Stationery Office is calculated to diminish the usefulness and influence of Select Committees of this House, and to discourage the interest and zeal of officials employed in the Public Departments of the State, 344. Vide SUPPLY (Amendments).

——— That this House, while most anxious to maintain the usefulness and influence of its Select Committees, and to encourage the interest and zeal of officials employed in the Public Departments of the State, after hearing the further explanations concerning the recent appointment of the Controller of Her Majesty's Stationery Office, withdraws the censure conveyed in the said Resolution, 367.

——— That the Contract entered into between the Postmaster General and the Highland Railway Company, for the conveyance of Mails between Scrabster Pier, Thurso, and Stromness in Orkney, be approved, 369.

——— That, when a Member, after being twice declared out of Order, shall be pronounced by Mr. Speaker, or by the Chairman of Committees, as the case may be, to be disregarding the authority of the Chair, the Debate shall be at once suspended; and, on a Motion being made in the House, that the Member be not heard during the remainder of the Debate, or during the sitting of the Committee, such Motion, after the Member complained of has been heard in explanation, shall be put without further Debate, 384. Vide infra (Business of the House).

——— That, in Committee of the whole House, no Member have power to move more than once, during the Debate on the same Question, either that the Chairman do report Progress or that the Chairman do leave the Chair, nor to speak more than once to each separate Motion; and that no Member who has made one of those Motions have power to make the other on the same Question, 384. Vide infra (Business of the House).

——— resolves to go into Committee immediately, to consider Acts, 13, 242, &c. ——— Various matters, 12. ——— Upon a future day, to consider various matters, 42, 53, &c.

——— resolves to meet on a certain day at a certain hour of the day (Ash Wednesday), 40.

——— resolves, at rising, to adjourn,—till a certain day, 10; 128 (Easter); 234 (Whitsuntide); 436.
